THE [NUMB. 843.]

South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY July 2d, to MONDAY July 9th, 1750.

LONDON, Feb. 27.

OUR correſpondent at Hamburgh is very explicit, and if his opinion may be depended upon, a war in the North is like to break out much ſooner than moſt people imagine; the laſt declaration on the part of the Ruſſian court at Stockholm having, inſtead of the categorical that was demanded, received a very indeterminate anſwer.

They write from Paris, that the 15th of March is fixed for the departure of the marſhal count de Saxe, for Dreſden; that he is to travel with a great retinue, and be accompanied by ſome officers of the firſt diſtinction; that the Dauphineſs is entered into the fifth month of her pregnancy, without the leaſt ſiniſter accident; that the march of a body of forces into Italy, is talked of as a thing certain; and that orders have been iſſued for equiping two powerful ſquadrons, one at Toulon, the other at Breſt; the former of which is to be commanded by the Marquis de Contades.

The laſt letters from Bruſſels ſuggeſt, that the intended journey of prince Charles to Vienna, is entirely laid aſide; that Mr. Van Haaren conferred lately with the Marquis de Botta, upon ſome diſpatches from Vienna, which are ſaid to be of the laſt importance; and that the ſtates of Brabant aſſembled on the 27th of January, N.S. to deliberate on a certain affair, which is not as yet ripe for the notice of the public.

Our correſpondent at Rotterdam inſinuates, that one great point in the commiſſion of a noble negociator, lately ſent to a neighbouring power, was to repreſent the true ſtate of affairs in that republic, and the abſolute impoſſibility of her taking any ſhare, in caſe the flames of war ſhould again break out, contrary to the general wiſhes of all good men in Europe.

We hear that the time ſaid to be fixed for his majeſty's departure for Hanover, is poſtponed for ſome time longer, on an extraordinary occaſion.

It is ſaid, that the right hon. the earl of Albemarle has poſtponed his journey to England for a ſhort time, on account of affairs of great importance.

Feb. 28. According to ſome advices from Bohemia, ſeveral camps are to be formed in that kingdom in April or May next.

The laſt advices from the Ruſſian Ports intimate, that their fleet will put to ſea about the middle of May.

From Vienna there is advice, that all foreign news-papers are prohibited there, leſt the people ſhould become as wiſe as their ſuperiors.

LONDON, March 10.

We hear that orders have been ſent to commodore Van Keppel to proceed immediately to Algiers, to demand a peremptory anſwer from the Dey, Whether he will reſtore the effects taken out of the Prince Frederick, and make ſatisfaction for the capture of ſeveral other Britiſh veſſels by the Algerines? And to inform him, that if he refuſes to comply with theſe equitable demands, his Britannick majeſty will find himſelf obliged to procure redreſs to his ſubjects by way of arms.

March 17. The Shark ſloop of war arrived at Barbados from Tobago, ſaw the militia, guns, &c. ſhipped from thence for Martineco; and the people were intirely to evacuate that iſland in 6 weeks.

We hear there will be a large embarkation this ſpring from England, as well as Germany, to Nova-Scotia.

And that 36,476 l. will be granted towards defraying the ſame; 39,770 l. for defraying the expences of the ſaid colony for the year 1750; 122,246 l. towards the expences laid out in the intended expedition againſt Canada, and for the ſupport of Nova Scotia; 10,000 l. for the maintenance of the forts and caſtles on the African coaſt, to be diſpoſed of as his majeſty ſhall think fit; and 3304 l. for improving the colony of Georgia for the year 1750.

March 22. It is currently reported, that the young pretender, who lately made ſuch a diſturbance in this kingdom, died a few days ſince in Swiſzerland.

We hear that a petition has been preſented to parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for encouraging the importation of pig and bar iron from our American colonies, in the room of that imported from Sweden, for which the Swedes are annually paid large ſums of money, and take little or nothing in return; and, at the ſame time, praying that the American people may be reſtrained from erecting ſlitting or rolling-mills.

BOSTON, April 23.

We hear that the Committee appointed by the General Court, for exchanging the Province Bills, have already burnt about the Value of Three Hundred and Thirty Thouſand Pounds, yet there is ſcarcely a Dollar to be ſeen paſſing. 'Tis ſaid great Numbers of 'em are already travelling to Rh. Iſland by Land, and many others have taken their Paſſage to New-York and Philadelphia by Water; but the greateſt Number are bound to England, this Climate not ſuiting their tender Conſtitutions. Beſides, as they are of Spaniſh Extract, we cannot wonder that they are ſullen, having been cloſely immured in a cold Dungeon, ever ſince their Arrival among us.

BOSTON, May 14.

Laſt week three Frenchmen arrived here by land from Canada, with a packet from the governor there, to his honour the Commander in chief of this province; and by all that we can yet diſcover, it appears that they are come upon a fleeveleſs errand; and 'tis generally thought, they have ſomething of more importance in their view.

Wedneſday laſt capt. Phillips ſailed for London, and it is ſaid carried off about ſixty thouſand of the dollars lately releaſed from their confinement in the treaſury.

By the laſt letters from Hallifax we are informed, that by a ſhip arrived there from London they had advice, that a regiment of ſoldiers, and 600 Engliſh ſettlers, with 1500 Germans, would be ſent over this ſummer, and that they would have a man of war and two ſloops ſtationed there for their protection.

And from Annapolis Royal, that the French inhabiting thoſe parts, had received orders from the governor of Canada, to leave their habitations, and come and ſettle there, which ſome of them had done, and others were preparing to follow them.

NEW-

NEW-YORK, May 14.

By a private letter to his excellency our governor, from the Havannah, dated May the 1st, 1750, N.S. which may be depended on, he is informed, that a preparation is making there, in order to deſtroy the ſettlement on the Muſquita ſhore, and alſo to take all our traders at the Bay: For this purpoſe they are fitting out eight privateers, which were to join thoſe of Campeachy; and it was thought thoſe veſſels would alſo be joined by three men of war which were ſailed from the Havannah, and have their rendezvous at Carthagena.

BOSTON, May 21.

Saturday laſt Capt. Evans arrived here in five Weeks from Briſtol, by whom we have the following Advices from the Univerſal Magazine for March laſt, which we have Room only to give ſhort Hints of at preſent, viz.

That great Damage was done at Rome by Earthquakes in February laſt.——At London, and other parts of England, a terrible Earthquake happened on the 18th of March, which did much Damage, and greatly alarmed the People, it being more violent than that in February laſt.——That the ſame was felt in Italy, and other Countries.——That on the 12th of March, Capt. Innys, (well known among the Ladies of this Town) was kill'd in a Duel with Capt. Clark, both Knowles's Captains.—That 400 French Proteſtants from Normandy and Picardy, had removed to Jerſey, in order to be tranſported to Nova-Scotia.—That on the 23d of January, a terrible Fire happened at Conſtantinople in Turky, which continued burning ſeveral Days, and conſumed twelve thouſand Houſes, ſaid to be near a tenth part of City.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

To be Sold at auction, on friday the 3d of Auguſt, a leaſe of 42 years to come of a lot in King-ſtreet, whereon are two good brick tenements with 6 rooms in each, (where the Priſon is now kept) and good back buildings, a garden, &c. the lot 30 feet in front, and 250 in depth, by William Glen.

THE ſubſcriber hereby gives notice, that he is removed from Tradd-ſtreet, to the houſe wherein Meſſrs. Kenneth & Benjamin Michie lately dwelt on the Bay, and has an aſſortment of goods proper for the ſeaſon, alſo good bar iron and CLARET in bottles, to be diſpos'd of on the moſt reaſonable terms, by Solomon Milner.

A parcel of myrtle-wax candles, to be ſold very reaſonable, by a perſon that intends to depart the province ſoon. Enquire at Mrs Taylor's in one of Mrs Dupuy's houſes.

THIS is once more to deſire all perſons to whom the eſtate of John Milner deceas'd is any ways indebted, to bring in their accompts to the ſubſcribers; and all perſons who are any ways indebted to the ſaid eſtate, to diſcharge the ſame before the 2d of Auguſt next, for by that time they will put all accompts that are not paid into the hands of an attorney.

☞ They will ſell, at public outcry, on thurſday the 2d of Auguſt next, at 11 o'clock, the houſe wherein Mr. Samuel Prioleau, jun. now lives, fronting Church and Tradd-ſtreet, and the houſe wherein Mr. John Milner (gunſmith) deceas'd lately liv'd; alſo a good houſe wench with her child. If any perſon has a mind to purchaſe either of the houſes before the day of ſale, they may treat with John Milner, Solomon Milner.

Whereas ſundry Palatines have lately deſerted from me Archibald Crawford, commander of the ſhip Friend's Goodwill, being indebted for freight of goods and for their paſſage from London to Charles-Town; and who, on default of payment for ſaid freight and paſſage, are here liable to be ſold as ſervants: This is therefore to warn all ſuch Palatines, who were paſſengers in the ſaid ſhip and have ſo deſerted, that in caſe, they left any cheſts, boxes, caſes, cloaths, or other goods of any kind, belonging to them, in my cuſtody; I am now willing and ready, and by my attorney or ſelf, ſhall, in this town, be willing and ready for the ſpace of two months after date, to give up to the owners all ſuch cheſts, goods, &c. left in my cuſtody, they paying me, or my attorney here, for the paſſage of their perſons and freight of their goods from London hither: And that on failing ſo to do, within the ſaid ſpace of two months after date, all ſuch cheſts, goods, &c. will then be ſold to the beſt bidder at Publick Outcry, towards ſatisfying my demands againſt the ſaid owners. June 4th, 1750.

Archibald Crawford.

Purſuant to an act of the general aſſembly of this province intituled, an act for the better relief of the poor of this province, impowering the veſtry and church-wardens of any pariſh, to aſſeſs the inhabitants thereof, any ſum or ſums of money as is wanted to reimburſe the church-wardens the money they have expended for the relief of the poor: AND WHEREAS the church-wardens and veſtry of the pariſh of St. Thomas, did, on Tueſday the 3d July 1750, aſſeſs the inhabitants thereof, in the ſum of one ſhilling and five pence on each ſlave, the like ſum for every 100 acres of land within this pariſh, and eight pence half penny for every hundred pounds at intereſt, in order to defray the expence of the ſaid pariſh for the year by paſt. THIS is therefore to deſire all perſons concerned, reſidents or non-reſidents, to pay their reſpective proportions of the ſaid aſſeſſments, on or before the 20th day of Auguſt next, to Meſſrs. Andrew Haſell, David Fogartie and Robert Daniel, or either of them, they being appointed collectors of the ſame, or elſe they may expect executions out againſt them.

Stephen Hartley,
Thomas Aſhby, jun. } Church Wardens.

Brought to me the under-written June 30th, 1750, from Mr. Benjamin Simons, two ſtray'd geldings, one of which a bright bay, and paces, is about 13 hands high, branded on his mounting ſhoulder 3 L a white ſpot in his forehead, his off hind hoof and ſome of the hair on the joint above it white, his left eye coloured like the eye of a fiſh, and when taken up had a bell ſtrung to his neck: The other is about 13 hands and an half high, coloured betwixt a cheſnut and ſorrel, is branded on his off ſhoulder IT, and trots. Whoever can prove a juſt property to the ſaid geldings, may have them, paying neceſſary charges, and applying to James Akin.

TWO ſtray geldings in my paſture, one of them is a bay, and branded on the mounting ſhoulder IS, the other is black, and branded on the mounting ſhoulder H, and on the near buttock b with a + a top, the near hind foot white. Any perſon claiming either of the ſaid geldings, may apply to Peter Taylor.

THE ſubſcriber will ſell 6000 acres of land, part of Aſhley-barony, either together, or in 2, 3 or 4 tracts; ſeveral plantations are ſettled, and uſeful buildings erected on them all.

N.B. This barony was laid out to the right honourable Anthony earl of Shaftſbury, by order from the lords proprietors, ſo long ſince as the year 1673. hath an extenſive front of ſeveral miles on Aſhley-River, and the land is well known to be inferior to none in the whole province; therefore the reader is not to expect any of thoſe pompous encomiums wanting, and comonly uſed in other advertiſements,

Samuel Wragg.

To be Sold, a good plantation for corn, rice and indico, on Pocotalago River in Prince William pariſh, with buildings, a good garden, orchard, and drains for ſtopping of water, and the beſt of the rice land not cleared, with many other conveniencies. Enquire of me in the ſaid pariſh

Hugh Bryan.

Mr. Marmaduke Aiſh, ſadler, of Charles-Town, born Sept. 1ſt, 1701, in the pariſh of North Petherton in the county of Somerſet, departed this life June 25th 1750, in the 49th year of his age, was decently buried at the pariſh church of St. Philip Charles-Town, and left, by his laſt will and teſtament Hopton Price, William Yeomans, and William Harvey, executors

THESE are therefore to deſire all perſons that have any demands on the deceaſed's eſtate, to ſend in their accompts to William Yeomans in Charles-Town; and all perſons that are indebted to the ſaid eſtate, to pay the ſame immediately to ſaid Yeomans, there being ſeveral preſſing demands on the ſaid Aiſh's eſtate, ſo it can't be expected to give any further notice.

THERE's to be ſold, at public vendue, at the ſaid deceaſed Aiſh's ſhop in Charles-Town, on the firſt wedneſday in Auguſt next, being the 1ſt day of ſaid month, the ſhop goods of the ſaid Aiſh, conſiſting of ſadles ready made, a large quantity of ſadle trees, with an aſſortment of ſadlery wares.

ALL perſons indebted to the ſubſcriber, of Charles-Town, either by bond, note or book-debt, are deſir'd to diſcharge the ſame, on or before the firſt day of Auguſt next, there being ſome preſſing demands upon him which muſt be anſwered by that time, their non compliance will oblige him to act contrary to his inclination.

Thomas Doughty.

To be Sold to the higheſt bidder, at Mr. John Bulline's plantation in Gooſe-Creek, on thurſday the 19th day of July, a parcel of choice ſlaves, moſtly this country born: Credit will be given till the firſt of March next, paying intereſt from the day of ſale and giving approved ſecurity. The property not to be altered, 'till the purchaſe-money is paid or ſatisfactory ſecurity given to the ſubſcribers, to whom the ſlaves are mortgaged

William Briſbane, Iſaac Bradwell.

N.B. If the weather ſhould prove bad, the ſale will be the next fair day after.

Run away from the ſubſcriber at Hobcaw; June 2th, Sambo, Mobe, Zacky, and Sam: And on July 1ſt, Jack, and Judith his wife, with their 3 children: Alſo another wench call'd Maria, and her 3 children. Be it at the peril of any one to harbour: But whoever brings them to Mr. Edward Truſler's or Mr. Tobias's, ſhall have ſatisfactory rewards, from William Duke.

A very good CHAIR-HORSE to be ſold: Enquire of the Printer.

To be Sold, a plantation containing 627 acres, on James-Iſland near Wappoo creek, formerly in the poſſeſſion of Mrs. Sarah Woodward deceaſed, the pleaſant and convenient ſituation of it, &c. being ſo well known, a particular deſcription of it would be needleſs. Any perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may apply to Mr. Joſeph Moody, in Charles-Town.

To be Sold at public vendue, on tueſday the 17th of July next, in Charles-Town, twelve negroes, being part of the eſtate of John Allen deceaſed, amongſt whom are, a good houſe-carpenter and a good bricklayer. The conditions of the ſale is ready money

John Scott, Executor.

To be Sold at public vendue, on friday the 20th of July 1750, at 11 in the forenoon, a peice of ground in Guignard's ſquare, containing 85 feet front on Ellery's ſtreet, and 46 feet deep in French-alley, with a convenient brick houſe and back buildings thereon, unfiniſh'd, lately belonging to James McKrelleſs deceaſ'd, under mortgage. The conditions will be publiſhed at the ſale, by

BOLTON & WRAGG.

THE ſubſcriber diſtills on halves, mint, peppermint, penny-royal, origanum, rue, parſley, fennel, wormwood, lavender, roſemary, cyprus nuts, and all other herbs.

SAMUEL CARNE.

N.B. He will give 5 ſ. per lb. for any quantity of SNAKE-ROOT, and if clear'd from the leaf, 7 ſ. 6.

SOUTH-CAROLINA. WHEREAS Rawlins Lowndes, Provoſt-Marſhal of this Province, in Purſuance of a Writ of Attachment to him directed, did ſeize and attach, certain Negroes, the Property of James Cuſſings and John Barnard, late of this Province, Indian-Traders, in order to make the ſaid James Cuſſings and John Barnard Parties in his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas in Charles-Town, before the Juſtices thereof, on the firſt Tueſday in July laſt, to anſwer to the Demands of Benjamin Stead and Branſill Evance, of Charles-Town aforeſaid, Merchants.

AND WHEREAS the ſaid Benjamin Stead and Branſill Evance, have, this 23d Day of Auguſt, 1749, filed their Declaration againſt the ſaid James Cuſſings and John Barnard, in the Office of the Clerk of the ſaid Court of Common Pleas in Charles-Town (a Copy whereof is poſted upon the Priſon-Houſe in Charles-Town, with a ſpecial Order of Court underwritten thereon, ORDERING, 'That the Defendants do plead to the Action within a Year and a Day, or Judgment by Default.')

THESE ARE THEREFORE TO GIVE NOTICE, That in Caſe the ſaid James Cuſſings & John Barnard do not appear and make their Defence in the ſaid Action, on or before the 24th Day of Auguſt, which will be in the Year of our Lord 1750, final and abſolute Judgment will then be given and awarded againſt them, according to the Form and Effect of an Act of the General Aſſembly of this Province in that Caſe made and provided. Aug. 23, 1749.

Strayed into Mr. Izard's plantation called the camp, a black ſtallion, about 12 hands and an half high, branded on the mounting ſhoulder &, and on the left buttock M. Whoever owns the ſaid beaſt, may have him applying to Felix Smith.

To be Sold, a negro carpenter called Robin, belonging to the eſtate of John Daniel deceas'd. Any perſon inclining to purchaſe him, may apply to Thomas Smith, ſen. on the bay in Charles-Town

To be Sold by the ſubſcriber, and deliver'd the 1ſt of December next, a choice plantation upon James-Iſland, pleaſantly ſituated upon Wappoo-Creek, containing about 600 acres; there is upon it a large two ſtory dwelling houſe and out houſes: The goodneſs of the land and other conveniencies is ſo well known, that I need not mention them here.—About 70 head of cattle, a ſtock of ſheep, hogs, and ſeveral horſes upon the ſaid plantation, are alſo to be ſold. One or two years credit will be given, paying lawful intereſt, and giving good ſecurity if required, by Samuel Perenneau.

Toll'd before me, a white mare, which ſtray'd into John Lloyd's paſture with ſaddle and bridle on, branded on the mounting ſhoulder BL, and on the mounting buttock thus ⊣ likewiſe a white gelding, branded on the off buttock thus v they both pace and trot. The owner muſt apply to Moſes Thomſon, T.M.

Run away from Saxe-Gotha, a tall negro man, called Pompey, above 30 years of age, having the firſt joint of the fore finger of his right hand cut off, formerly belonging to Thomas Brown. Whoever takes up and brings him to the ſubſcriber, ſhall be paid Ten Pounds and reaſonable charges, and whoever harbours him will be ſeverely proſecuted, by Henry Gallman.

Whereas the Church-Wardens and Veſtry-Men of the pariſh of St. Helena, did, on the 30th of April laſt, aſſeſs the inhabitants owners of lands and ſlaves within the ſaid pariſh, in the ſum of One Shilling and Six Pence in the pound on their general tax, payable on or before the 30th of July next.

This is therefore to deſire all perſons ſubject to the payment of the ſaid aſſeſſment, living near Charles-Town, for their greater convenience, to pay the ſame to Meſſrs. Glen & Cooper in Charles-Town, who are properly impowered to receive the ſame, otherwiſe executions will be granted againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame. Beaufort May 1ſt, 1750.

Jemmitt Cobley, John Fenwin, jun. } Church-Wardens.

To be Sold at public vendue, on wedneſday the 25th of July 1750, at the plantation of James Clark deceaſed, on Ediſto-Iſland, all the perſonal eſtate of the deceaſed, conſiſting of a choice parcel of ſlaves, amongſt which are two coopers, two good houſe-wenches, and the reſt very valuable plantation ſlaves; alſo a ſtock of cattle, horſes, hogs, and ſheep, a good crop on the ground, and ſeveral houſhold goods. And to be let, the place where the deceaſed lately lived, alſo the place where Mr. Daniel Mitchell deceaſed lived. All ſums to 10 l. to be paid on the firſt of September next; all ſums to 100 l. on the firſt day of January, and all above 100 l. on the firſt day of March 1751-2, paying intereſt and giving ſecurity to William Lawton, John Calder, Executors.

To be Sold at public vendue, on tueſday the 24th inſtant, at 10 o'clock, at Mr. Jame Singleton's plantation at Four-Holes, the whole eſtate of Mr. George Butler deceaſed, conſiſting of a choice parcel of ſlaves, two good riding horſes, and ſome houſhold goods. Credit will be given 'till the firſt day of January next, paying intereſt from the day of ſale, and giving ſecurity, if required, by Suſannah Butler, Executrix.

N.B. No diſcount will be allowed in payment.

Run away from the ſubſcriber, a tall negro fellow named Titus, has a ſpot upon his left eye, a ſcar under his right breaſt, and a great many upon his back; one of his legs has been broke, which has altered the ſhape of it upon the ſkin; he once belonged to Mr. Walter, and afterwards to Mr. Charles Wright: Alſo a ſhort thick negro wench named Jenny, and a boy about 8 years old, named Titus; all had on blue and white homeſpun cloaths. Whoever apprehends and brings them to the owner, or to the work-houſe, ſhall be rewarded according to law. Ronald Mackdonald.

Whereas ſeveral perſons in Charles-Town, have made it their buſineſs, (for ſome time) to caſt mean and unbecoming reflections on the ſubſcriber, in order to leſſen him in his character, &c.

HE therefore thinks proper, to inform all ſuch perſons as have treated him in ſuch a contemptible manner, that he hath not only had the honour of receiving the kind compliments of a moſt rev. Lord Primate, and other great perſonages of the kingdom of England, (in regard to the great and faithful ſervices perform'd for the Proteſtant intereſt, by ſome of his relations,) but hath likewiſe receiv'd ſeveral handſome letters and preſents from his dear friend the late rev. doct. Benjamin Coleman, who was pleas'd to make an honourable mention of the method he took in teaching proper Engliſh, whereby he hath inſtructed numbers in this province, and ſtill continues to do the ſame, in a genteel and conciſe way of delivery peculiar to himſelf. If any perſon or perſons ſhould ſcruple or doubt the truth of what is here written by the ſaid ſubſcriber, he kindly deſires to appeal unto the judgments of ſeveral gentlemen of known worth and integrity, many of whom, now living, are ſufficient proofs of the ſeveral improvements they and others have made under the care and diligence of

Their moſt humble Servant, JOSEPH BARRY.

Whereas many perſons that are poſſeſſed of good rice and indico lands in this province, have not a ſufficient number of hands to improve and plant the ſame; the ſubſcriber therefore gives notice, that he will join an equal number of hands with any one ſuch perſon, for equal ſhares in the produce. Enquire at Mr. William Glen's, of F. B.

Run away twelve-months ago, from Mr. Paul Villepontoux of Chriſt-Church pariſh, Kate, a middle ſized, well-ſet negro wench, about 24 years of age, this country born, and formerly belonged to Mrs. Peſquet of Charles-Town; ſhe is a little yelloviſh in her face, and has loſt two of her upper fore-teeth. She took along with her, her ſon a boy about 7 or 8 years old, named Billy. She has been frequently ſeen in and about Charles-Town, where ſhe has gone about waſhing by the name of Delia, and is ſuſpected to be encouraged and concealed by ſome white people, who have received wages of her, and others who have a deſire to purchaſe her. But whereas the ſaid two negroes are now, and have been for ſome time, the ſole property of the ſubſcriber, I do therefore forewarn all perſons whatſoever, from either harbouring, concealing, hiring, or any wiſe entertaining the ſaid wench and boy, on any pretence whatſoever; for ſuch perſons as are, or can be proved guilty of ſuch villainous practices, may aſſure themſelves of being proſecuted to the utmoſt rigour of the law. I alſo promiſe a reward of Ten Pounds, beſides lawful charges, to any perſon or perſons, Patroles or others, if they can apprehend the ſaid negroes, and either deliver them to me at the Free School in St. Thomas Pariſh, or ſecure them in the common goal in Charles-Town.

Stephen Hartley.

GLEN & COOPER give this PUBLIC NOTICE, that they continue to ſell the Country Produce: And for the Satisfaction of their Employers, they oblige themſelves to become Security for the Payment of all Debts contracted for the Goods by them ſold on the common Commiſſions. They alſo continue to ſell WINE and RUM by the Pipe and Hogſhead, and in ſmaller Quantities for the Conveniency of their Employers, on the moſt reaſonable Terms.

Run away from the ſubſcriber, in January laſt, a middle ſized negro fellow, named Dublin, a cooper by trade, was formerly mr. Robert Wright's of Aſhepoo, and is ſuppoſed to be now harboured by ſome of the ſlaves that lately belonged to that gentleman. Whoever brings him to me at my plantation on Aſhley River, ſhall have Twenty Pounds reward

Humphry Elliett.

A red cow, marked with a crop and three ſlits in the left ear, in the right ear an underkeel and a ſlit, the brand reſembling an open ſciſſars: Three black cows, with calves by their ſides, mark'd in the right ear with a crop and two ſlits, in the left ear an under-keel and a ſlit, one branded ⊞, one with a large fore +, on the buttock, the other unbranded: A grey ſtallion, branded on the mounting ſhoulder, near buttock, and off ſhoulder WB. Any perſon claiming any of the above creatures, may apply to

John Skene.

HENRY BOSSARD, jun. informs me of a brown bay mare that he has taken up, branded on the mounting ſhoulder DW in one. The owner, on proving the property, and paying the charges, may be put in poſſeſſion of her.

Paul Trapier, J.P.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE South-Carolina Gazette.

[NUMB. 843.]

ABSTRACT of an ACT, intituled, "An act for "keeping the ſtreets in CHARLES-TOWN clean, "and eſtabliſhing ſuch other regulations for the "ſecurity, health and convenience of the inhabi- "tants of the ſaid town, as are therein mentio- "ned, and for eſtabliſhing a new market in the "ſaid town."

ENACTED, That the commiſſioners herein appointed, or any three, are fully impowered, from time to time, to appoint a SCAVENGER, ſubject to their direction in any matter relating to the cleanſing, filling up, or repairing the ſtreets, lanes, alleys, drains or common ſewers in the ſaid town: and for neglect, at their pleaſure, to remove and appoint another in his room.

ENACTED, That the ſaid commiſſioners, as they ſhall judge neceſſary, are impowered to cauſe all bridges and cauſeys to be amended, and all holes in any of the ſtreets, &c. to be filled up, and to ſink any drains or common ſewers in any of the ſtreets, &c. with the conſent of the majority of the perſons who are to defray the expence of ſuch common drains or ſewers; and all common drains and ſewers to be amended and repaired as the commiſſioners ſhall think neceſſary.

ENACTED, That the charges and expence of mending and repairing bridges, cauſeys, filling up holes, &c. and ſinking common drains and ſewers, and repairing the ſame afterwards, ſhall be paid and borne by the owners and proprietors of lands and houſes lying on the ſtreet, &c. that ſhall be benefitted thereby, rateably and proportionably, to the value of the lands and houſes each perſon holds or claims fronting ſuch ſtreet, &c. and the ſaid commiſſioners are impowered to make aſſeſſment on all the owners and proprietors of land and houſes on any ſtreet, &c. where they ſhall cauſe any bridges or cauſeys to be amended, or holes filled up, or common drains or ſewers to be ſunk, for defraying the expence thereof: And in caſe of refuſal or neglect of any perſon or perſons owning or claiming lands and houſes as aforeſaid, on any of the ſaid ſtreets, &c. by the ſpace of twenty days, to pay their ſeveral aſſeſſments, (ten days notice of ſuch aſſeſſment having been given by hanging up the ſame in ſome public part of the ſaid town) the ſame is to be levied, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of the ſaid commiſſioners, directed to any lawful conſtable, on the goods and chattels of ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall ſo refuſe or neglect; together with ſuch charges as are allowed on levying executions for the general tax.

AND tenants, guardians, executors, attorneys and truſtees, ſhall be ſubject to pay the aſſeſſment for the land as if it were their proper right, and allowed to ſtop and diſcount the ſame out of the rent.

ENACTED, That any perſon owning or poſſeſſing any lands or tenements in any ſtreet, &c. wherein any common drain or ſewer ſhall be laid, may make any private drain or water-courſe, from their houſes or lands, into ſuch common drain or ſewer, provided it be not ſunk to the prejudice of the common drain or ſewer, and no perſon to ſtop up any common drain or ſewer, on pain of forfeiting treble coſts and damages.

ENACTED, if any perſon lay timber, bricks, or dirt in the ſtreet, &c. to the annoyance or obſtruction of the paſſage of perſons or carriages, and continue the ſame for three hours without conſent of the commiſſioners, any two of the commiſſioners may order the ſame to be removed within three hours after; and in caſe of neglect, the commiſſioners may remove the ſame, and aſſeſs the perſon laying the annoyance, for the charges and ten pounds per diem, for every day ſuch annoyance ſhall remain after order for removing the ſame; to be levied by warrant, and ſale of the goods and chattels of the offender.

AND the owners of lands fronting the ſtreets in town, with conſent of the commiſſioners, may plant trees, and incloſe them to prevent their being deſtroyed.

ENACTED, That the SCAVENGER, at leaſt once a week, go through all the ſtreets, lanes and alleys in town, to carry off all filth, dirt and other annoyance; the expence whereof to be paid by owners of lands in town, to be aſſeſſed and levied in manner aforeſaid.

ANY perſon laying filth in the ſtreets, or ſtopping any drain or water-courſe, ſhall forfeit five pounds, and in default of payment by the ſpace of five days, the offender to be ſent to the work-houſe, there to be kept ten days at hard labour.

ENACTED, no perſon to burn chips, ſhavings, or traſh in the ſtreets, &c. or open yards in town, on pain of forfeiting ten pounds.

ENACTED, That no perſon let, or drive for hire, any any cart, waggon, or dray, within the limits of Charles-Town, without licence from the commiſſioners, for which licence five pounds per Annum ſhall be paid; and if any perſon let, or drive for hire, any ſuch cart, &c. without ſuch licence, or having one able white perſon to attend and conduct the ſame, he ſhall forfeit for every offence five pounds. And no perſon keeping a cart, &c. without eſpecial leave of the commiſſioners, ſhall make uſe of more than three horſes to any cart, &c. on pain of forfeiting five pounds. And the commiſſioners are impowered to regulate and licence all carts, waggons, and drays, let or driven for hire in the ſaid town, and to aſcertain the prices of carriage of all goods and commodities from and to all parts of the town, and cauſe the rates to be publiſhed. And any carter, waggoner, or drayman, taking more than the rates aſcertained, to forfeit twenty pounds. And all licenced carters are obliged, at all times in the day (ſundays excepted) to carry ſuch goods, &c. as ſhall be requeſted of them, under the forfeiture of twenty ſhillings to the perſon aggrieved, unleſs ſuch carter, &c. by teſtimony of any credible witneſs, can make it appear he was pre-engaged, or other reaſonable excuſe to be approved of by the commiſſioners, and their pay, agreeable to the rates aſcertained, be firſt tendered.

And in caſe any cart, &c. ſhall be loaded, or be driven to the place appointed, to take any goods, &c. and the owner, for any cauſe of bad weather or otherwiſe, ſhall not think fit to have the ſame carried away, ſuch owner ſhall be obliged to pay the carter, &c. one moiety of the rates aſcertained.

And every cart, &c. to be licenced, ſhall have a mark or figure on each of the ſhafts, and numbered and regiſtered; and putting the ſame mark or figure on one cart, &c. appointed for another, or defacing the ſame, forfeiture twenty pounds.

Any perſon driving any cart, &c. in any ſtreet, &c. without ſome other perſon on foot to guide the ſame, on conviction, by oath of one credible witneſs, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings, or be put in the ſtocks for two hours.

And any perſon to ride on horſe-back, or to drive or be driven in any chair, chaiſe, charriot or coach, in or through any ſtreets, &c. in town, faſter than a moderate trot or pace, ſhall forfeit five pounds, and liable to make ſatisfaction for any damages ſuſtained thereby.

And, for the better encouragement of indigent white men who are willing to work as porters or labourers in town, It is Enacted, That every perſon, who ſhall have occaſion to hire a porter or labourer in town, ſhall be obliged to give the preference to any able white man offering his ſervice, on pain of forfeiting ten ſhillings to ſuch white man.

Enacted, That no ſlave belonging to any perſon living without the limits of Charles-Town, except the ſlaves belonging to orphans whoſe parents were reſident in Charles-Town at the time of their deceaſe, and even in that caſe, not above two belonging to any one eſtate, and thoſe ſuch as have heretofore been employed in town, ſhall be permitted to work for hire in town, as porters or labourers, fiſhermen or otherwiſe. And any perſon may take up ſuch ſlave, found at work in town contrary to the intention of this act, and carry him to the work-houſe, there to remain at the expence of the owner till ſent for.

Also Enacted, That no inhabitant of Charles-Town ſhall be permitted to keep more than two male ſlaves to work out for hire, as porters, labourers, fiſhermen or handicrafts-men, in town, on pain of forfeiting five pounds for every day ſuch ſlave ſhall be kept on hire.

And no negro or ſlave to ride on horſeback within the limits of Charles-Town (unleſs attending ſome white perſon;) or drive any ſingle horſe chair or chaiſe faſter than a walk or moderate trot, without ſome white perſon in it; on pain of twenty ſtripes, by order of any juſtice, on proof of any credible white perſon; and the maſter or owner to pay the charge thereof.

And no maſter of any ſlave ſhall permit or ſuffer ſuch ſlave to carry on any handicraft trade in a ſhop by himſelf, in town, on pain of forfeiting five pounds for every day. Nor to put any negro or ſlave apprentice to any mechanic or handicraft trade of another in town, on forfeiture of one hundred pounds.

Provided, that nothing in this act ſhall be conſtrued, to hinder any handicraft tradeſmen in town, from teaching their own negroes or ſlaves the trades they exerciſe, ſo that they conſtantly employ one white apprentice or journey-man, for every two negroes that they ſhall ſo teach and thenceforth employ.

And Provided also, not to hinder any perſon from putting his ſlave apprentice to learn the trade of a barber to be employed for ſuch owner's own uſe.

Enacted, That it ſhall not be lawful to bury any negro or other ſlave after ſun-ſet in Charles-Town: And the owner, or in whoſe care ſuch ſlave was (buried contrary to the direction of this act) at the time of his deceaſe, ſhall forfeit five pounds: And no negro to wear a ſcarf.

Enacted, That no boat or pettiaugua above the burthen of forty rice barrels, carrying goods on freight (fire-wood, bricks and lime excepted) ſhall, three months after paſſing this act, be made uſe of for the port and harbour of Charles-Town, without a white man in her; the owner to forfeit ten pounds for every offence.

And, for remedy of pettiauguas and other loaded boats receiving damage going to wharffs, by reaſon of veſſels there lying not being properly moor'd, It's Enacted, That the maſter, pilot, or other perſon having the charge of any ſhip or veſſel going to any wharff, ſhall obſerve the direction of the wharffinger of the wharff where ſuch veſſel is to be moor'd; and in caſe any complaint ſhall be made to any of the commiſſioners for regulating pilots, about any veſſel's mooring, the commiſſioners to order in what manner the mooring ſhall be altered, which ſhall be done in twenty four hours, or the ſame ſhall be done at the expence of the maſter of the veſſel.

And every wharffinger, if called on, ſhall attend at all times at his wharff, to give directions about mooring any veſſel coming to the ſame, on pain of forfeiting ten pounds for every offence.

ENACTED, That every wharfinger in Charles-Town ſhall make oath, before the commiſſioners, to do equal and impartial juſtice between buyer and ſeller in weighing of all goods, &c. and in caſe of refuſal, ſhall forfeit two hundred pounds; and for not making uſe of ſtandard weights twenty pounds.

ENACTED, no perſon to throw ſticks at cocks or otherwiſe, or to fire any ſquibs, crackers or other fire-works in the ſaid town, on forfeiture of twenty ſhillings for every offence. And no negro to beat any drum on holidays or otherwiſe, without permiſſion of ſome officer, on pain of whipping.

ENACTED, That no perſon hereafter to ſell any cloth, woollen or linnen, at public auction, outcry or vendue, in leſs quantities than by the piece; nor wines or rum in leſs quantity than a pipe, hogſhead or tierce; nor beer or other liquors, in leſs quantities than a barrel; or bottled liquor, than by the hamper or caſk; nor loaf ſugars, than one hundred weight; nor other ſugar, than by the barrel; forfeiture one hundred pounds for every offence. Not to be conſtrued to extend to affect any ſale by executors or adminiſtrators of teſtator or inteſtates effects, or goods attached, ſeized, diſtrained, or taken in execution.

THE commiſſioners of the public market in town, are impowered to erect ſhades on a peice of land belonging to the public, being part of a low water lot fronting Tradd-ſtreet, for a PUBLIC MARKET, or to purchaſe a piece next adjoining the ſame on either ſide, or to ſell the public land, and to purchaſe other land between Mr. Matthews's wharff and Mr. Elliott's wharff, for the uſe of a Public Market, and to erect ſhades, for the uſe of perſons living in the country not following the trade of a butcher; ſame to remain under the directions of the commiſſioners of the market; the hire of the ſtalls to be paid in to the public treaſurer till the expence of purchaſing the land be reimburſed; after to be applied as the ſtall-rents in the other market. The whole expence to be defrayed by a general tax, provided the ſame exceed not one thouſand pounds.

Gabriel Manigault and Benjamin Smith, Eſqrs; Mr. Thomas Smith the elder, Mr. George Seaman and Mr. John Crokatt, are appointed commiſſioners for putting this act in execution, until Eaſter-Monday 1751. When, and at every eaſter-monday, five freeholders in Charles-Town ſhall be elected, by the freeholders of Charles-Town, as commiſſioners for putting this act in execution the year enſuing. And in caſe of death or departure of any one, the governor or commander in chief to appoint another being a freeholder. And any perſon choſen commiſſioner, neglecting or refuſing to act, ſhall forfeit one hundred pounds, but not liable to ſuch fine more than once in ſeven years.

ENACTED, That where a pecuniary fine is impoſed, and the offender be a ſlave, he or ſhe ſhall ſuffer by whipping not exceeding twenty ſtripes, unleſs the maſter pay the fine.

THAT this act be conſtrued moſt largely and beneficially for carrying the ſame in execution, and for the encouragement and juſtification of all perſons to be employed in the execution thereof.
